My relaxed and personal approach can be seen on the faces I photograph. Portrait photography can be commissioned as an inclusive package. Alternatively, you can choose to separate the session fee and then buy only the prints you desire. However, the most important aspect of this decision is 'which pricing model do you feel most comfortable with?'

Platinum Package: $770

Selecting and purchasing photographs of your loved ones is never easy, because each print purchase is essentially an emotional decision. In an effort to take the emotion out of selecting and purchasing prints, Imaging Aspects offers a fixed priced package that includes the 'High Resolution Image Files'.

The Platinum Package on offer is $770. When prints and discs are purchased separately, many clients end up spending $1000 or more. The key advantage of this package is by spending $770 up front, you get better value and the ability to print/use all of the 'print ready' images provided.

Included in the Platinum Package is the session fee and the High Resolution Image Files. By including the 'HiRes Disc', you and your family can print freely from the portrait coverage.
